

Mrs. Wilson Suggests New Ways to Make Tasty Dressing for Lettuce

Variety in the Menu May Be Gained by Using Such Novelties as Bayonaise or Strawberry Salad

HERE are some snappy salads that are really either the plain French dressing, mayonnaise or the cream dressings that are suggested below. All will provide real variety.

Italian Salad
Shred fine five coarse outside leaves of lettuce. Chop Two tomatoes,
Two branches of celery,
One lettuce,
One onion,
One-half of pared cucumber,
Add
One-half cup of French dressing,
One-half cup of mayonnaise dressing, and toss to blend.

Meadowlark Salad
This famous club salad is very popular with the men folks. Place in mixing bowl
One Spanish onion, cut in thin slices, Two cups of cold cooked string beans,
Four pimientos, chopped fine,
Two tomatoes, cut in eighths,
Two beets, sliced,
One-half cup of mayonnaise,
One-half cup of French dressing,
Two tablespoons of chili sauce,
One tablespoon of Worcestershire sauce.
Toss to blend. Serve in crisp nests of lettuce, garnished with nicely browned slices of bacon and hard-boiled egg, cut in quarters.

Stuffed Baked Tomato Salad Cut slice from the tops of five large tomatoes and remove the pulp with a spoon. Now mince five four slices of bacon and brown nicely, place in bowl and add
Two teaspoons of grated onion, Two teaspoons of finely minced parsley,
Three eggs,
Three-quarters cup of milk,
Three tablespoons of grated cheese,
Four tablespoons of fine bread crumbs,
One teaspoon of salt,
One-half teaspoon of pepper, Mix well by beating and then place the tomatoes in custard cups and fill with the mixture and bake in slow oven for thirty minutes; cool and then chill.
Cut in half and serve in nest of crisp lettuce. Mask with mayonnaise and garnish with nicely browned strip of bacon and finely chopped parsley.

Bayonaise Salad
Place in salad bowl
One-half cup of finely chopped onions,
Two medium-size carrots, cut in dice,
Three branches of celery, cut in dice,
Four beets cooked and cut in dice,
One cup of cooked peas,
Four tomatoes, cut in eighths.
Toss to blend and serve with whipped cream dressing.

Bacon and Bean Salad
Place in mixing bowl
One and one-half cups of baked beans,
Add
Two green peppers, chopped fine,
Two branches of celery, chopped fine,
Three onions, chopped fine,
One-half cup of finely chopped parsley,
One-half cup of French dressing,
One-half cup of mayonnaise dressing,
Toss to blend, and serve in crisp nests of lettuce and garnish with nicely brown strips of bacon and hard-boiled eggs, cut in slices.
The fruit salads are especially delicious in the spring and summer, and while there are but few fruits at the present time in the market, the canned variety will help out.

Montauk Pear Salad
Open and drain a can of pears. Place two halves of a pear in crisp, individual nest of lettuce. Now add One teaspoon of chopped nuts, Four thin slices of apple,
Six thin slices of banana, Serve with fruit salad dressing.

Sullivan County Pear Salad Place two halves of canned pears in individual crisp nest of lettuce and add One teaspoon of finely chopped canned ginger,
Six seeded raisins,
Serve with whipped cream.

Canned Peach Salad, Harvard Prepare individual nest of crisp lettuce and place in two halves of canned peach. Place a spoonful of marshmallow whip on each peach and sprinkle with finely chopped nuts. Serve with honey cream salad dressing.

Honey Cream Salad Dressing
Place in small saucepan
One-half cup of honey,
One-half cup of water,
Two tablespoons of cornstarch, Stir to dissolve and bring to a boil.
Cook for three minutes and then add Juice of one lemon, Juice of one-half orange,
One-half cup of whipped cream,
Cook and serve.

Grapefruit Salad Cut the pulp of two grapefruit in Wonderfully Pretty Frocks for $15 and $16.50

Warmer weather has set women thinking of lighter frocks and they are finding here some of the loveliest silk frocks of the season. And all so astonishingly low in price! For $15—beaded crepes, tricolette dresses in many styles, and crepe de chine dresses in good colorings. $16.50 for a most varied collection ranging from a simple, straight-line silk crepe to a dainty and delightful dinner dress of black lace. Many beaded and embroidered Canton dresses and fresh taffetas in the group.

Tweed Cape Frocks, $10 to $23.50
These are the days to wear them, as you'll see almost any after-noon on Chestnut Street. They're in charming colors.

Wool Jersey Frocks, $10 and $12.50
Mostly with pleated skirts and long-line bodices—in tan, brown, navy and Copenhagen.

Scores of Different Styles at $25 to $38.50 Beaded Georgette crepe dresses in navy blue, Canton crepe dresses cut on long lines with braided-trimmed overskirts, crepe eponge in sports models (some with capes to match) and lace-striped tricolette and foulard frocks.

When Have House Frocks Been So Pretty?
One of cotton ramie in green, blue, tan or rose has little flecks of white in the material. A nar-row sash belt, tailored box pleats in the long bodice, white piping and flat pearl-like buttons are some of the things that make it a really charming dress.
Another is of very fine gingham in slip-over style, trimmed with sheer white organdie collar, cuffs and pocket-tops. The organdie is finished with buttonhole stitching and French knots. In tan, green, pink or blue checks. Both styles $4.50.

Rubberized Aprons, $1
Pretty cretonne aprons in large colorful patterns are made in the straight, one-piece, bib style. They're long enough to kneel in the garden in and the rubber keeps out the dampness.
(Central)

Babies' Creepers Begin at $1
—and what dear cunning things they are, of fine crepes and gingham!
Others, at $1.50 to $3, are of seersucker crepes in lemon, white, pink and blue; dotted swisses, checked dimities and pretty poplins with sheer white collars and cuffs.
Sizes 1 year and 2.
